Rain Again Holds Up Harvest Operations

Light rains early this week have brought all harvesting operations in the district to a halt.

Combining of barley is pretty well completed; wheat is about 85 per cent swathed and about 50 per cent combined. A few farmers have completed harvesting except for flax, while others are just getting nicely started on wheat. Barley yields are in the 45 to 65 bushels to the acre bracket and wheat appears to be running from 30 to 45. Wheat threshed before the frost hit will in most cases grade No. 2 or 3 but wheat hit by the frost is expected to grade lower.

Some duck damage has been reported but the northern ducks are not down yet and damage from this cause has not been widespread as yet.

Tuesday night's forecast was for improved weather conditions starting Wednesday afternoon or Thursday.

Seek Permission To Use Airport Wells For Town

Although the natural gas problem is uppermost these days, the Vulcan town council has also been continuing its efforts to find a better source of water supply and has corresponded with various departments of the federal government with regard to the wells formerly used by the Vulcan Airport and situated a few miles west of town.

The wells were inspected last week by Lawrence Kindt, M.P. for Macleod, along with members of the town council and he will take up the matter on behalf of the town by contacting the proper authorities to get permission for the town to lease or use the wells.

Library Notes

Two excellent books have been donated to the Vulcan Public Library in memory of Brown Hugh Alexander McDonald, a highly respected old-timer of the Alston district, who passed away July 23, 1959.

The first "Canada in the Making" by Arthur R. M. Lower was presented by the Kirkcaldy Women's Institute. The second, by the same author, "Colony to Nation," (A History of Canada) presented by a number of citizens of Kirkcaldy and district.

These two books are very valuable additions to the Vulcan Libraries over growing section on Canada.

275,000 Workers

Pulp and paper employees numbered 275,000. Another 200,000 work seasonally in the woods.

Legion Worker, Thomas Webber Of Milo Passes

A well known resident of the Milo district and prominent in Canadian Legion affairs for many years, Thomas Webber, aged 64, died on Wednesday, Sept. 9, 1959. Born in Scofield, Utah, he moved to Raymond, Alta., in 1902 and to Grassy Lake in 1905. He served with the 49th Battalion in the First World War and was married while overseas, returning home to Grassy Lake in 1919. In 1925 he moved to Vulcan and in 1928 to the Milo district, where he had since resided.

A charter member of the Queenstown-Milo Branch No. 155 of the Canadian Legion, he had served as president of the Branch and at the time of his death was Legion Zone Chairman. In 1948 he was presented with the Medal of Merit, the highest award in the Canadian Legion, for his work on behalf of veterans and their dependants.

Besides his wife Cecilia, he is survived by three sons, Clifford of Vulcan and Thomas and John of Milo; one daughter, Mrs. W. B. (Margaret) McIntyre of Vulcan; 12 grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Mills of Heister and Mrs. Margaret Montz of Billingham, Iowa; and a half-brother, Patrick Laughlin of Carleton Place.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Peter Dawson of Carmanagay at the Vulcan United Church on Saturday, Sept. 12, and the large attendance attested to the esteem in which Mr. Webber was held by his friends and neighbors.

Pall-bearers were L. J. Smith, Robert Monner, J. W. Fleming, S. Brown, Robert Hill and R. Shoultice. Internment was made in the Vulcan cemetery and military honors were accorded the deceased by a firing party of members of "A" Company, The Calgary Highlanders.

Vulcan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Lions Plan Light Bulb Campaign

Something new for Vulcan and district will be a "Light Bulb Campaign" to be held Oct. 1 to Oct. 15, by the Vulcan Lions Club.

A house-to-house canvass of both town and district will take place to sell bags of light bulbs, each bag containing two 60 watt, four 100 watt and one 150 watt bulb, for the price of $2.00. Proceeds will go to the Lions Memorial Swimming Pool, a Lions Club project that shows a considerable annual deficit.

For further convenience and to make it easy for everyone to buy a bag of bulbs, bulb depots will be in operation at the Vulcan Electric Co. store and at the Vulcan Seed Cleaning Plant.

At Claresholm Tournament

Hole-in-one For Charlie Fulton

Charlie Fulton realized the "golfer's dream" at Claresholm on Sunday when he sank his tee shot on the 200 yard fourth hole for a hole-in-one. Playing in the Claresholm tournament with Vulcan golfers Doug Paris and Richard Hammer and a gallery of twelve other golfers standing by waiting their turn, Charlie smacked a No. 3 wood drive onto the green, stooped over to pick up his tee and was instantly mobbed when the ball disappeared into the cup.

Aside from gaining admission into the "hole in one" club Charlie also won a wrist watch, as a Claresholm jeweler offered the watch as a special prize in the tournament to anyone scoring an ace. Charlie continued his superb shooting throughout the day and was an easy winner of the men's third flight. Other Vulcan golfers who made the prize list were Ray Wellman who came second in the championship flight, one stroke behind Doug Brown of Claresholm, the top winner, with a score of 66. Ron Buehler won the first flight handily with a score of 68.

Ethel Banks was the only Vulcan lady to make the jewelry, getting second in the ladies' second flight.

Game Wardens Address Fish & Game Meeting

Plans are underway to stage a competition for the heaviest duck or goose brought in by Vulcan and district Fish and Game members this fall. This was one of the items of business at last Friday's meeting of the organization in the Legion Hall.

Two speakers, Fred Aastrup of High River and Bill Bell of Claresholm explained their work as game officers, in regard to the duck and pheasant situations. The overall duck population is down this year but there seems to be no shortage of the Pintail species which locate in the area. Damage so far to crops appears to be light but the need for an earlier opening to the duck season was felt to tie in with the swathing. Many special permits have been issued for protective shooting on farms, in answer to one question, regarding permits, it was mentioned that Sunday shooting with permits is allowed and the number shooting from one permit depends on circumstances at the time.

No official answer could be given on reasons for splitting the pheasant season into two separate periods but it was generally felt that this would give a fuller harvest of birds. Normally the pheasants — where much of the shooting is done — leave the ditches, for the safety of fields shortly after the season begins and it is hoped that with a break in shooting, the pheasants will return to the roadsides.

The later setting of the opening date on upland birds this year has been guided by weather. Late spring and accompanying late hatching period has resulted in smaller birds for this time of year so an extension is needed to bring them to normal growth.

An interesting point was brought up concerning use of .22 rifles. They may be used on upland birds but not on waterfowl.

An interesting comparison was given in the film concerning goose shooting. Dealing with the quick growth of birds, the narrator said that if human babies grew at the same pace as goslings, they would weigh 160 pounds in two months.

The accompanying film on gun safety was also shown to Grade 10 classes of the Vulcan School before being sent to the distributor. A club project is to eventually develop a safety program with regard to gun handling among students in the schools, with the sanction and co-operation of authorities.

Regarding the duck and goose trophy, contact points have been set up as recording station. They are Don McCord at Queenstown, Joe Thompson at Milo and Wolfe's Hardware in Vulcan.

Gas Connections Needed

Council Demands Action By Public Utilities Board

At the regular town council meeting held Monday evening of this week, a strongly worded letter to the Board of Public Utilities was drafted, demanding that prompt action be taken to ensure that Vulcan residents presently without gas service and with no other ways of heating their homes be immediately supplied with connections from the gas distribution system to their homes.

The Board of Public Utility Commissioners has the power to force this action upon the gas company at present operating in Vulcan (Central Gas) and the Town is insisting that this action be taken.

Meanwhile, no news of an official nature regarding the gas hassle has been released from Calgary this week.

Council approved the following building permits:

FWUA Meeting At Berrywater

The Berrywater FWUA held their September meeting in Berrywater community centre on Sept. 9, with 12 members present.

The secretary read new flashes and also a letter from Del McCordle regarding membership drive and municipal collection of dues. A letter was read from Mr. Miller regarding the Mental Health Association and their need for funds. Discussion followed on the fall rally which was to be held at Berrywater or Arrowwood. Since this hall is not yet ready it was decided to ask Arrowwood to take it

Scott - Callaghan Wedding Rites

St. Andrew's Catholic Church was the scene of a late afternoon double-ring ceremony on Aug. 10, when Rita Vivian, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Callaghan of Vulcan, became the bride of Frederick James LaVern Scott, son of Mrs. Dick Rennie of London, Ont. Colorful bouquets of gladioli adorned the main and side altars. Rev. Father Marion officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white cocktail-length gown of nylon and net over satin, trimmed with mother-of-pearl sequins and braid. Her chapel veil, dotted with seeded pearls, was held in place by a tiara of flowers and pearls. The bride carried a white prayer book, mounted with white roses. She wore a silver bracelet, a gift of the groom.

Bridal attendants were Miss Lenore Bews of Longview, Alta., a friend of the bride, as maid of honor and Misses Faye and Jean Callaghan, sisters of the bride, as junior bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore a pale pink embroidered street-length dress and carried a bouquet of blue chrysanthemums sprayed with pink glitter with which her floral headpiece matched. The junior bridesmaids, dressed alike in pale blue nylon dresses, carried bouquets of pink stained chrysanthemums sprayed with blue cate.

This minister of northern affairs
 says:
"It's in the bag!"

What's in the bag? A loaf of bread — broken up to last longer. Father is the photographer — with mother and baby brother well back behind him. For this is a highlight of a "camping out" holiday, so carefully planned that expenditures didn't exceed the sum of money set aside for it.

The budget of the Minister of Northern Affairs and National Resources at Ottawa covers a number of departmental branches. Among these are National Parks, Water Resources, Forestry, and Northern Administration and Lands. His expenditures involve millions of dollars.

Money for all departments of government comes through the Minister of Finance who gets it largely in taxes from Canadians such as you. When more money is spent than is collected in taxes, government must borrow from you . . . or else create new money. The creation of new money is one factor that leads to inflation . . . which means your dollar buys less and less.

The government has been spending more than you have been paying in taxes. To narrow the gap between income and expenditures, new taxes have been imposed.

The next step should be to reduce expenditures, or at least hold the line. Undertaking new commitments — adding new welfare or other services — will only make it that much more difficult to pay our way. Tell your M.P. at Ottawa that since you are trying to save, you expect government to do the same.

You also help when you save more by means of life insurance, savings deposits, and the purchase of government bonds. Your savings help to create a SOUND dollar; and this, in turn, helps to create job security for you and more jobs for other Canadians.

 A BETTER LIFE FOR YOU

Most Bubbles Must Break

The announcement from Ottawa recently that unemployment insurance rates will jump next month is sure to cause hostility generally among employer and employee. There has been a feeling for some time in hundreds of hearts that they were being taken for a ride, and that the industrious and conscientious workman is paying the shot for some of his brothers who may be less eager to be continuously employed. An article in a recent issue of Maclean's Magazine points out that the development of fraud in the receipt of unemployment insurance benefits is widespread and that even cabinet ministers are aware of the situation, but concludes with the remark that generally people don't seem concerned, so nothing is likely to be done. Regardless of the feelings of Maclean's writer, there have been rumblings among many workers for some time, and this latest increase is likely to provoke more. That the reserves of the unemployment insurance fund generally should be at such a disturbingly low level in a time of relative boom should be considered a scandal to the administration. No one will ignore, or can forget, the concern last winter over the high level of unemployment, and it is perfectly true that this caused deep inroads into the assets of the fund. But if it is possible to deplete the reserves so seriously when the actual percentage of unemployed is at a comparatively low level of what real use would the fund ever be in time of economic disaster such as the thirties?

HERRONTON - FARROW

Fire destroyed about 700 bales of feed on the farm of Joe Trasov on Sunday. Neighbors and a good supply of water from the farm pressure system prevented the fire from spreading to the nearby barn although the walls were badly scorched.

Grade one beginners at Herronton this year are: Debbie Sewell, Marilyn Sewell, Wendy Weber, Francis Van Bussel, David Trasov, Ricky Malmberg, Marjory Maisey, Tim Howe, Warren Merkle, Harvey McNiven and Joan Betchel. Farrow beginners at Mossleigh are Linda Stevens, Caron Randle, Marilyn Meadows. District beginners at Blackie include Linda Percival, Kelly Paul, Marilyn Racraft and Larry McKeage.

Midge Bodell who passed her Grade IX exams with all H's is going to school in Calgary this year. Considerable road construction is going on with the road from Highway 23 north for eight miles being high graded as well as the rebuilding going on, on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Davies of Calgary were weekend visitors with district relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frank and her mother.

boys of Havre, Montana, were weekend visitors at the Stevens and Beagle homes. They were accompanied by Mrs. Chauncey Stevens of High River who had spent ten days at their home.

Ed McFarland, formerly of this district and now of Boston, Mass., was a visitor one day last week.

Hospital patients of this district are Jerry Murphy, Van Bussel, Mrs. Frank McNiven. Frank McNiven has also been ill at home.

Shower Honors

A pretty shower in honor of Miss Beverly Bennett was held in the hall on Sept. 1, with about 60 ladies present. Pink and white decorations and autumn flowers were used to decorate the hall and tables.

A bride's scrapbook was made and a contest was held with Mrs. Harold Greenfield winning. Mrs. Carl Stienner played an accordion solo and little Miss Shirley Beagle sang a solo.

On behalf of the ladies, Mrs. Dennis Sewell presented the "chuckwagon" load of gifts which was pulled by a red "convertible" driven by Master Dale Sewell, to the bride to be. She was assisted in opening her gifts by Mrs. Fred Burly, Mrs. Concomore Allen and Mrs. Burly.

MAJORVILLE

This has been a week of slow motion for harvesting, showers on Tuesday brought over a tenth of an inch of moisture to some parts of the district. Another night of frost, this time heavier than the week before tells of coming fall; the trees are also beginning to turn to the colors of fall. Some swathing of flax has begun and most of the barley is in the bins. Some field of sunflowers are being watched with interest, but this is a crop that has to wait for frost to kill all weeds before harvesting can begin. Damage from the high winds of one of our recent storms is now apparent in some wheat stands that had been left for straight combining.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bertsch were Mr. and Mrs. Knute Nelson of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oberholtzer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Verlyn Culp and family of Arrowwood and Nancy Robertson, also of Arrowwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Perry and family of Moses Lake, Wash., were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Heather.

Holiday weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Winch were their son Marvin of Strathmore and Myrna Beagle of Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Hap Heather were in Calgary for a couple of days this week; while there they were guests at the home of the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vooy's went to Calgary during the week to visit the former's father who is a patient in the General Hospital. At last report Grandpa Vooy's was improving. Best wishes go to him for a speedy recovery from his friends here.

What Next?

Many things come out in the wash but we think that perhaps the jack-pot was hit last Monday in our humble abode. Work overalls were due for a tubbing and as usual were taken by the cuffs and given a shake to dislodge anything that was loose; nothing of value was shaken loose so into the washer for a whirl around.

After the garment was put out to dry, the last chore of the wash was begun, that of emptying the washer, but when the plug was unscrewed — no water — so into the washer, for the reason, and there in the drain was a shoe lace, but hold on, on the end of the shoe lace hangs the watch that had brought the farmer home on time for more years than one cares to remember.

A visit to the repair shop tells us that it can be repaired and will one day run again. Many things have been washed out in our lifetime but that is the first time that time had been brought to a standstill.

MOSSLEIGH

Harvesting is in full swing whenever the weather permits. Some unsettled weather has prevailed the beginning of the week causing tough straw. Much more warmer weather is wished for.

Home and School Association

A very good attendance was present at the first Home and School meeting of this season. C. Meadows was in the chair. F. Mason was elected as first vice-president.

D. Binning introduced the new members of the staff and Mrs. C. Green and Mrs. J. Thurber presented each with a corsage or boutonniere. A flower was also presented to the parents of each Grade 1 student. The teachers are to decide as to whether to continue with the travelling library.

After the meeting Mrs. C. Green, the program convener and her committee, namely Mrs. C. Meadows and Mrs. J. Thurber, conducted the following program: Vocal solos by Audrey Anne Groenewald and Rose Norton; horn selection by Arthur Moore; piano solo, Janet Leslie, and a contest, "Beat the Winners," with four teen-agers against four adults, the teen-agers were the winners.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Lloyd Brown, Mrs. John Christie, Mrs. William Campbell and Mrs. Wilfred Hagedorn.

Promotion Service

Seven Sunday School students received promotional certificates on Sunday and five boys and girls were unable to attend.

A rally day service followed with a girls' choir in attendance. Those promoted were Donna Belle Wark, Linda Hohn, Kay Hagedorn, Sandra Christie, Donnie Bain, Ronnie Johnston and David Wark.

Lois Washburn, Max Christie, Greg Scott, Bonnie Dawson and Connie Dawson were unable to be present. A very good attendance was present and it is hoped that it will continue.

The meeting opened with "O Canada."

Following the reading of the minutes a questionnaire was read regarding the best month in which to hold the annual Home and School Convention. June was the month voted for. The insurance plan was discussed. As yet the forms have not been received.
